

2022 Cybersecurity Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 7: Tech company that may soon be worth $3 billion.
 9: The most-often used one is "1234567." Please use something else, instead.
 10: Your cable box is one. The name is short for "modulate demodulate."
 11: Abbreviation for "random access memory," that's part of your PC's hardware.
 12: A young deer in its first year.
 13: On most keyboards, it's found on the top-left corner and closes a pop-up window.
 14: Device that records the signal of your heartbeat.
 16: These devices were first named in a 1962 New York Times article about computing.
 17: Someone with wide-ranging interests. Not "eccentric," but...
 20: In 2021, the Pentagon set up an office to study these phenomena.
 22: Popular summertime mosquito-repelling torch that smells of citronella.
 24: Wireless technology on your phone named for a first century Danish king.
 25: Big tech company originally named "Backrub."
 27: Every time.
 29: German for "ground," it's home to everyone.
 32: Secret warriors in ancient Japan...also Teenage Mutant Turtles.
 33: Using the web to make digital audio recordings; 28% of us listen to them weekly.
 34: A house without a basement is built on one.
 36: A female who behaves in a polite manner...or came from a high social position.
 37: Popular Steve Harvey TV game show, "Family ____."
 39: Tactile, sensory organ used for food intake.
 40: If you suffer a heart attack, you might need help from one.
 41: TV show whose producer says he may decide to retire from after 50 years.
 43: A format for images on the web; pronounced the same as a brand of peanut butter.
 45: Money earmarked for restaurant servers. People in New Hampshire give the most.
 46: Short name of one that is produced using Microsoft Word.
 48: It has been a big factor in your life for about two years now.
 49: To receive data from a web server and store it on your computer.
 50: To select something with your computer's mouse.

Down

- 1 Where "Star Trek" is set.
 2: Unwanted email...or spiced lunch meat.
 3: Said to a slacker: "Make yourself ____."
 4: A bunch of computers taken over by a hacker.
 5: Spend time doing nothing...or a car's engine out of gear.
 6: Microsoft's video conferencing product that competes with Zoom.
 8: "Play it by ____."
 10: It's the nickname of a computer whose name is a fruit.
 15: One of the four states of matter...or fuel for your vehicle.
 16: Dog, cat, guinea pig, snake...you get the idea.
 18: Popular murder mystery board game invented in 1943.
 19: Opposite of "out from."
 21: The two most popular TV shows of 2021 featured this sport.
 23: The "QWERTY" design of this device is designed to make fast typing difficult.
 24: Early version of software, often buggy and unstable.
 26: "Greatest of All Time," originally coined by Muhammad Ali's wife.
 27: To avenge satisfaction for a wrong by punishing the wrongdoer.
 28: To inform someone in advance of possible danger.
 30: Microsoft's web browser, the 3rd most popular brand.
 31: Radio signal that allows you to surf the web without wires.
 35: A binary digit. Eight of them make a "byte."
 36: Spanish for the word "the." Nevada's capital, for example, means "The Meadows."
 38: Billy Joel hit written for Christie Brinkley and Whitney Houston, " ____ Girl."
 39: A single class that's part of instruction.
 40: A typical worker receives 121 and sends 40 every weekday.
 42: Businesses can deduct 50% of the cost of most of these midday meals.
 43: Nickname for American soldiers; the term comes from "government issue."
 44: One of two ways a recorded song ends.
 46: They are so named because babies say "d" words after first saying "mama."
 47: Atlanta-based government agency currently focused on COVID.

Cybersecurity Crossword Puzzle

